

BIRMINGHAM AGE-HERALD

THE GREAT FAMILY NEWSPAPER OF THE SOUTH

BIRMINGHAM, ALABAMA, MONDAY, JANUARY 16, 1922

10 PAGES

REPORTERS READY FOR CONGRESSIONAL

DECLARES WITH IN THE OF NATIONS

President Addresses Admonishes Whom Demonstration at Residence

Associated Press
January 15.—The confidence in the League of Nations, President Wilson today admonished gathering at that those who opposed would have to "look out to have a man in the audience of the Wednesday afternoon that those present to the former chief of the State Department, Mr. Wilson, by his remarks the crowd was rapidly and swiftly dispersed.

Mr. Wilson said that he was confident that the League of Nations would be a success and that it was his duty to see that it was so.

Wilson had retired in the afternoon and the crowd continued until about 11 o'clock when they dispersed.

Wilson had retired in the afternoon and the crowd continued until about 11 o'clock when they dispersed.

Wilson had retired in the afternoon and the crowd continued until about 11 o'clock when they dispersed.

Wilson had retired in the afternoon and the crowd continued until about 11 o'clock when they dispersed.

Wilson had retired in the afternoon and the crowd continued until about 11 o'clock when they dispersed.

Wilson had retired in the afternoon and the crowd continued until about 11 o'clock when they dispersed.

Attend Funeral Services Yesterday Afternoon of Ex-Soldier

PROF INSURANCE TO BE SUBJECT OF FARM CONFERENCE

Experimenters Said to Have Proved Successful—Production to Be Topic

By Associated Press
Washington, January 15.—The subject of crop insurance was the subject of a national agricultural conference, which opened here January 15, for inclusion in a permanent national farm policy discussion within the conference would be expected to develop, whether the proponents would recommend that the insurance be carried by the farmers co-operatively, by private companies, or through government aid.

It is believed that the conference will be held in Washington, D. C., and will be held in the afternoon of January 16.

The conference will be held in the afternoon of January 16.

The conference will be held in the afternoon of January 16.

The conference will be held in the afternoon of January 16.

Crowds Throng Streets in Funeral Cortège Moves to Cemetery After Brief Ceremony—Appearance of "White Clad" Attendants at Graves Causes Surprise

Thousands of ex-service men and grade joined hands yesterday afternoon to make a funeral service for S. H. Turley, ex-soldier, who died on the street last Monday afternoon after the Hillman hospital had declined to admit him for lack of room, the largest and most elaborate military event ever witnessed in Birmingham.

The funeral service was held at the Hillman hospital.

The funeral service was held at the Hillman hospital.

The funeral service was held at the Hillman hospital.

Friends of Have Str To Base

Ford Offer Disproves Reputation Is Worthless and S and Tennessee Sen

Washington, January 15.—(Special.)—A conference in Alabama, in a conference Shoals, which will soon be raging unusually strong point on which

LITTLE HOPE HEL FOR RESCUE OF MEN ON DISABLED SHIP

Two Montgomery Men Reported Aboard Disabled Flying Boat—Efforts of Searchers Fail

By Associated Press
Montgomery, January 15.—(Special.)—The flying boat "Albatross" which left Miami for Birmingham yesterday afternoon with five persons aboard, has not been missing at sea for hours and fleets of speed boats are searching for it. A still water plane has been located on the water since yesterday afternoon. A still water plane has been located on the water since yesterday afternoon.

Accused Men Arrive at Home In Good Spirits and Are Given Ovation

Tuscaloosa, January 15.—(Special.)—Governor Lanoster and the eight other national guardsmen arrived here this afternoon from Birmingham, where they were released from jail early this morning.

TUSCALOOSA MEN SIGN BONDS FOR NINE GUARDSMEN

They were given quite an ovation here by their friends. The bonds were easily made, the bondsmen being as follows: Charles B. Vernon, S. E. Deal, F. R. Probst, D. L. Roseman, A. C. Cade, R. H. Cochran, W. F. Smith, Jr., Frank M. Moody, J. H. Stallworth, W. H. Burtis, J. A. Polson, J. M. Burdick, J. P. Burdick, J. M. Burdick, J. P. Burdick.

Prisoner Charged With an Attempt to Get Out of Jail

Mobile, January 15.—(Special.)—Elmer Harris, 27, awaiting trial on the charge of burglary in the county jail, was additionally charged today with attempting escape from the place.

MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE COMPLETE

Presented by the President

Two Substitutes for Reserve Bank Act Agreed Upon

Agricultural Bloc Leaders Wish to Secure Farm Representation on the Federal Reserve Board

My Favourite

By IRENE